

South Burnett Rail Trail

A recreation trail 43.5 km long from Kingaroy to Murgon, just a 3 hour drive north west of Brisbane in the red soil country of the picturesque South Burnett.

Ideal for walkers, runners and cyclists of all ages including families. Dogs on leads are welcome.

NO motorised vehicles or horses are allowed on this section of the trail.

There are chicanes when crossing each road but please take care.

“The South Burnett Rail Trail is fully bitumen sealed and winds through beautiful rural Queensland.

See if you can spot duboisia, peanuts and Paulownia trees”

The rail trail was originally the ‘Kingaroy to Theebine’ Rail Line and in 2017 was converted into a recreational trail, ideal for walking or cycling with short distances and gentle inclines between towns.

We welcome you to our region to enjoy the South Burnett Rail Trail.

South Burnett Rail Trail

Kingaroy - Murgon

Kingaroy

The largest town in the South Burnett and home to peanuts and navy beans. Kingaroy offers a range of accommodation options for adventurers taking on the South Burnett Rail Trail.

The trail starts at O'Neill Square in the centre of town and progresses north.

Crawford

As you travel along the trail north from Kingaroy you will pass crops of peanuts, duboisia and grazing cattle with the backdrop of Mount Wooroolin leading you into Crawford.

Memerambi

The quaint little town of Memerambi offers the famous 'Stop Shop' offering ice creams, gelato's and other local produce. Memerambi is the first pit stop (travelling from Kingaroy) with toilet facilities within easy access of the trail.

Wooroolin

15km north of Kingaroy is the village of Wooroolin. With two cafes, a pub and post office, it adjoins the famous Wooroolin Wetlands, a haven for bird watchers.

There is a FREE 48 hour caravan stop suitable for caravans and tents across from the Wooroolin Café and the Grand Hotel is a perfect spot for lunch or dinner.

Tingoora

Home to one of the most picturesque curved railway bridges providing the perfect photo opportunity. Tingoora offers a quiet picnic spot including toilets and is home to the 'Tinny Pub'.

Wondai

Wondai is a friendly bustling township with a number of shops, a pharmacy, cafes and a FREE 48 hour caravan stop. If you have time, explore the Wondai Regional Art Gallery in the Old Station Master's house, South Burnett Timber Industry Museum and Wondai Heritage Museum.

The Wondai to Murgon stretch is 12.9kms and is the most secluded and peaceful section. Look out for kangaroos, koalas and if you're lucky, you might just spot a platypus in Barambah creek.

Murgon

The northern end of the trail has a range of eateries and accommodation options including a FREE 48 hour caravan stop and a number of wineries in the area. Don't forget to pay a visit to the Queensland Dairy and Heritage Museum.

If time permits, just up the road is the Indigenous community of Cherbourg, offering tours of the Ration Shed giving you a look into the local Indigenous history. Call (07) 4169 5753 to book.
