

Things To Do!

1. Power, people and peanuts are themed exhibits on display at the Kingaroy Heritage Museum.
2. Experience and enjoy the visual arts of the region's talented artists at the oldest public art space in the South Burnett - Kingaroy Art Gallery.
3. Discover views overlooking the town of Kingaroy from Mt Wooroolin lookout.
4. Visit the remains of an old shield volcano formed over 30 million years ago, the Bunya Mountains boasts amazing views and over 35km of walking tracks.
5. Those keen to explore South Burnett on bike will enjoy the many trails in the area, including the fully sealed trail from Kingaroy To Murgon. Ride the latest mountain bike trails around Gordonbook Dam and loop trails at Wooroolin.
6. Stargazing at its best. Kingaroy Observatory connects you with what's happening in the galaxy.
7. You know you're in peanut country when you've seen the heritage-listed peanut silos as you enter Kingaroy.
8. Experience locally crafted wines along the South Burnett wine trail.
9. You haven't been to Kingaroy unless you have tasted its most famous salty snack, pop by the Information Centre for a selection of locally grown peanuts.
10. Go nuts over the big peanut at Lions Park.

Kingaroy Visitor Information Centre

128 Haly Street, Kingaroy
07 4189 9172

kingaroyvic@southburnett.qld.gov.au

 Discover South Burnett
www.discoversouthburnett.com.au

Art & History

Kingaroy Visitor Information Centre

128 Haly Street, Kingaroy 07 4189 9172

Kingaroy prides itself on having a wide range of local produce and products on offer. Staffed by volunteers who are only too happy to impart their local knowledge as well as plan your visit to local attractions in the area.

Kingaroy Heritage Museum

124 Haly Street, Kingaroy 07 4189 9151

Nestled under the shadow of the National Heritage listed Peanut Silos, the Kingaroy Heritage Museum showcases the history of the Kingaroy region under the themes "People, Power and Peanuts".

Kingaroy Regional Art Gallery

126 Haly Street, Kingaroy 07 4189 9323

Housed in an iconic Art Deco building, the Kingaroy Regional Art Gallery showcases works of local and visiting artists.

"Handmade in Country" is the themed gift shop highlighting local artisans and craftspeople.

Take in Some Nature

Bunya Mountains

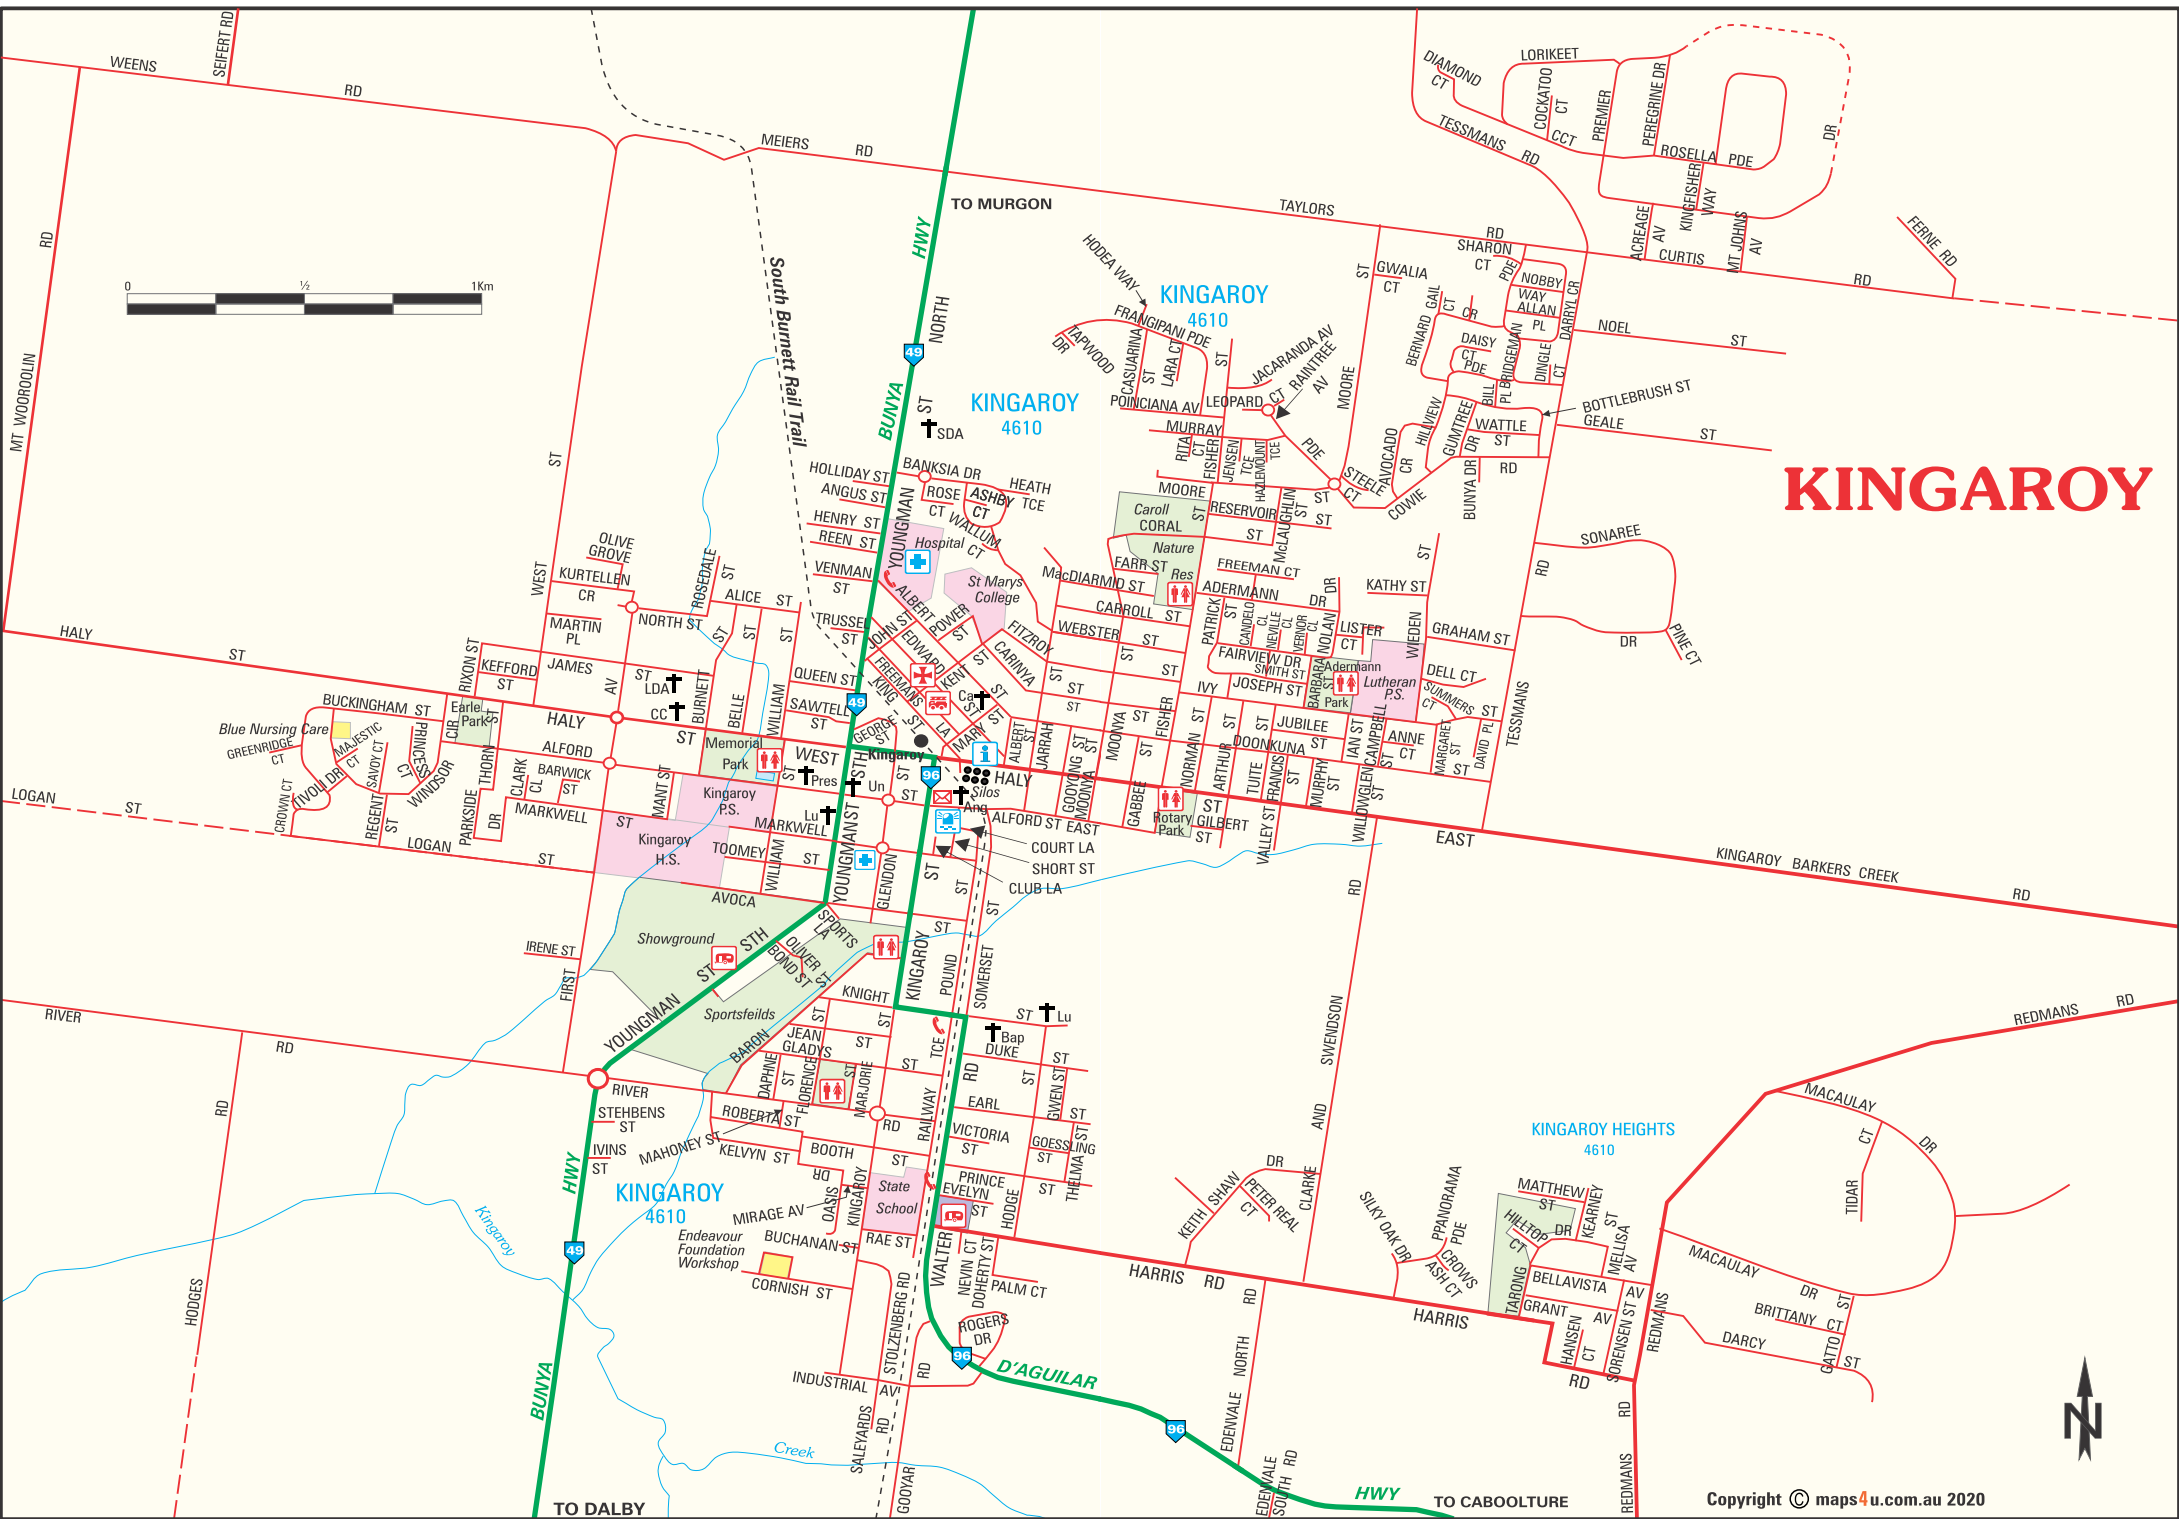

Forming part of the Great Dividing Range. Nature walks and bird feeding are a highlight of a visit to the area. The area is renowned for its abundance of flora, fauna and for its significance to the Aboriginal culture.

The mountains contain 35km of walking tracks, many with impressive views, that take you through the bunya forests, eucalypt forests, grasslands and vine scrubs.

South Burnett

KINGAROY